CLUB LITANY

By ALICE AMES WINTER

Leader: God, our Creator, our Father and our Friend, from many homes and with many minds we come together this day, bound each to each as children of Thy Wisdom, Thy Love, Thy Will.

Response: May day unto day utter speech and night unto night show knowledge.

Leader: May the Spirit of the Lord rest upon us, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and right, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord.

Response: Of us may it be said: In her tongue is the law of kindness, she looketh to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed saying, "Many daughters have done virtously, but thou excelleth them all."

Leader: Here may mercy and truth meet together, righteousness and peace kiss each other.

Response: So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Leader: Here shall we stand in the ways and ask where is the good way, that we may walk therein.

Response: Behind Thy wisdom and Thy Counsel lieth Thy Love.

Leader: Though we have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge and though we have all faith so that we could remove mountains, and have not Love, we are nothing.

Response: Wilt Thou here light a candle of understanding in our hearts that shall not be put out.

Leader: Teach us that we can not truly pray Thy prayer without a pledge that we will fulfill the human part of bringing to pass Thy Will, and Thy Kingdom here on earth.

All: Our Father who art in Heaven——

Collect of Club Women of America

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.
May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.
May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.
Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.
Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight-forward and unafraid.
Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene and gentle.
Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.
And may we strive to touch and to know the great common human heart of us all; and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

MISS MARY STEWART, Colorado.

THE CLUB WOMAN'S HYMN

With joy we meet, each friend we greet,
From mountain and from sea;
Hand clasped in hand, as one we stand,
In faith and loyalty.
We love our work, no task we shirk,
We serve where needs are found;
A good deed done, is for each one,
To make more joy abound.

Afire with zeal, we seek the weal,
Of Nation, State, and Home;
That all may share, in our welfare,
And none be forced to roam.
Always we seek, to lift the weak;
To help the strong grow wise;
To fill our hearts with love and peace
That we, with them, may rise.

Let Carolina womanhood
Arise in all its might;
With purpose strong, to right the wrong,
And make earth's pathways bright.
God guide us in our work and play,
God keep us brave and true;
Our efforts bless, and bring success,
To all we strive to do.

—SALLIE SOUTHALL COTTEN.

OUR CLUB HISTORY

Fifteen women representing various clubs and organizations of the city met, on April 25, 1919, with Miss Adelaide Fries in order to discuss with Mrs. Clarence Johnson, then president of The State Federation of Women's Clubs of North Carolina, the organization of a Woman's Club for Winston-Salem. The idea gained enthusiasm and on May 7, one hundred and seventy-five women answered the call for a mass meeting. This was held in The Board of Trade rooms on Liberty Street. With interest at a high peak, an organization was perfected with Mrs. Howard E. Rondthaler elected president and Mrs. Henry L. Riggins, vice-president.

The Y.W.C.A. very kindly offered the Club the use of their rooms until a club house could be secured.

In the first two years, the membership grew to 380. We needed larger quarters for the monthly meetings. The new Robert E. Lee Hotel proffered us the ballroom. In 1922, a lot on Fifth Street between Broad and Summit Streets was purchased for $7,500, and paid for in 1923. Our present club house was bought from Mrs. Cicero Tise in 1925 for the amazing sum of $67,500. We made a down payment of $10,000 together with the Fifth Street lot, leaving $50,000 to be paid in five years. Our club house was opened on May 24, 1925, with a Sunday Vesper Service. The enormous task began of raising $5000 plus interest and insurance each year. Every known way of money-raising was tried. It was the survival of the fittest. The older women who could not act as saleswomen dropped out and new members were almost afraid to come in.

In 1930, thirty-one people endorsed a note to borrow $30,000 to pay off the indebtedness. In 1935, the load was more than the active members could carry. We were faced with the loss of our club house. Then the people of the community nobly came to our rescue. Twenty-two persons reduced the debt from $23,700 to $6,000 and the deed of title was transferred to the Winston-Salem Foundation. All this time, the interest groups were functioning and the Woman's Club was taking her active part in community betterment. Much remodeling was done to the house making it more adequate for large meetings and for upstairs' renters. Since 1935, the club life has been one of enjoyment and out giving, receiving the benefits of the club, rather than a hand to hand struggle for its very existence.

July 25, 1946 was a "Red-Letter Day", as on that day The Woman's Club of Winston-Salem made its last payment on the debt and a session of rejoicing was held in the Board of Directors. We are now the happy owners of our club house.

In 1920 our Woman's Club federated with the State Federation and the National Federation of Women's Clubs, and enjoyed the privileges and inspiration of this fellowship until 1934, when the club debt had become such a burden that we relinquished our state and national membership. In 1945 we again took up membership in the State Federation of Women's Clubs and in the General Federation of Women's Clubs in the United States.

In the meantime and throughout the years, our Junior Club which is "our child", has grown and flourished and is leading the state in worth while activities. The Junior Club shares the club house with the Senior Club and we are proud indeed of their accomplishments.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Club Members:

We are now embarked upon another year of club activities. As we remember the theme of our state president, Mrs. Ed. Anderson, "Marshaling our resources for peace and security" let us go forward to a broader field of endeavor.

Today the cold war is fast developing into a hot war. As a group of civic minded women we have many responsibilities. As individuals we must be alert, interested citizens, and informed voters. We must keep up with international affairs for much of western civilization as we know it depends upon us. By following our state and national programs we can work for the welfare of our children and young people, we can improve our communities, educate ourselves and others, support the work of the United Nations, work to improve good will among nations, and promote understanding at home. In doing all these things we can strengthen our own nation and our position of leadership in what is left of a free world.

I would like for us to continue our own theme "More community service." There is every reason for us to feel our responsibilities to our city, state and nation. Many of us do not have a real appreciation and understanding of citizenship. The understanding of what good citizenship means is acquired in the home. There we learn to live together, share responsibilities, and respect the rights of others. As homemakers the attitudes and beliefs of our children belong to us. We must set an example for our young people not only in the home but in every phase of our American life.

By remembering and living our club Collect each of us can have a definite influence in our world of today.

Sincerely yours,

GERTRUDE G. CAHOON

(Mrs. William B., Jr.)

WOMAN'S CLUB ROSTER

A history and a prophecy
The story here is told
Of Woman's onward march
A story never old.
We're sorry if your name's left out,
We hate one friend to lose,
But if you'd keep it on the list,
Remember annual dues.
